Homily

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, (profound bow through “the Virgin Mary”) who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer of the Faithful

Our response: Lord, hear our prayer

Prayer Over the Offerings

Priest: Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

The people rise and reply

All: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name for our good and the good of all his holy church

The priest prays the Prayer Over the Offerings, and we acclaim

All: Amen

All:	Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
Priest	Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days, that, by the help of your mercy, we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress,

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever

“Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God.”
– I JOHN 4:15

How strong is your faith? When you have an opportunity to either defend or clarify a question about our Catholic faith, do you do it? Or, do you remain silent so that others don't think you are weird? Pray for the courage to be strong in all circumstances and to joyfully share your witness with others.

GOSPEL MEDITATION: Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

May 13, 2021 - The Ascension of the Lord

There is always something very tender and heartwarming about a kiss. When someone who loves us offers us a kiss, it sends a clear message that we are valued and special. We occupy a unique place in their lives and have a distinct purpose. Kissing celebrates the wonder and beauty of human life. In a very powerful way, we are connected, through intimate touch, with another human being. With the incarnation of Christ, God kissed humanity. God, revealed so perfectly in Jesus Christ, showed us that we have value and are made in God's image and likeness. Mortal human beings radiate with the presence of God and are worthy enough to reveal the intimacy of the Divine Mystery. The human race is not simply something God created from a distance but something special within which God dwells.

It is no wonder then, why the poor hold such an honored place in Jesus' ministry. They speak of God's love and they cry out for the compassion that is due them as children of God. Justice is about setting relationships right because we are all filled with God's love and have dignity. The human story is understood as a partnership, a true and new covenant, celebrating a love relationship between all of creation and their Creator. It is a story that does not end with the Cross or even the Resurrection. The story finds its happy ending in the Ascension. Our human narrative is still evolving and moving ever more closely toward that day when all will be one in Christ.

Jesus now sits at the right hand of the Father as the Christ of God. In the ascended state, we see what we are all meant to become and have before us the transformed life that awaits all of creation. The disciples got a glimpse of what this transfiguration would be on the holy mountain and it is an essential part of the Good News we are called to proclaim!

Christ, now ascended to the Father, sets our paths straight and gives us a look at what awaits us. The day-to-day challenges of life often find us struggling with our incompleteness. Today's celebration gives us the strength to persevere, knowing that we'll eventually be well. May our hearts be enlightened so that we can know this hope and the surpassing greatness of Christ's power!

Ministry Activities

Cherub Memorial Garden - Respect Life Ministry

In support of Saint Bonaventure families who have lost a child in early pregnancy, stillbirth, SIDS or infancy; and wish to remember these cherubs with a solar memorial light and ring of annual flowers in our Sating Bonaventure Cherub Memorial Garden for the coming year, please see the information below:

May 21: All Cherub memorial solar lights, currently in the garden, will be removed, and put in a holding area at the north end of the garden, so the garden soil may be tilled and prepared for new ANNUAL flowers to be planted by participating families.

May 23 - 29: New family participants may register this week at the parish office or current participants RENEW enrollment in the 2021 Cherub Memorial Garden project by calling Donna Dahl at 952-240-4243. During this week, we ask participating families to retrieve or replace their cherub memorial solar light, affix their enrollment # on the solar light stem, place the light in the center area of the garden, and plant a 12-15" circle of ANNUAL flowers surrounding their light in the center garden section.

May 30: Our traditional Memorial Day service, and blessing of the cherub garden plots, will take place at about 11:15 a.m., after the 10 a.m. Sunday Mass. All interested parishioners are encouraged and welcomed to attend this short service in support of participating families.

This endeavor is supported by Saint Bonaventure Respect Life Ministry. For more information, call Donna, 952-240-4243.

Thank you.
